

Seminar of traditional Korean mask dance TALCHUM

Under the guidance of Korean master Lee Dong Ho and his assistants will take place on 16 January in TKD Center at Campanus Primary School. A unique seminar of traditional Korean mask dance Talchum from 18:00 to 20:30. The seminar is intended for all people regardless of age.

Price: 690 CZK GBHS members enrolled till 12.1.

800 late enrolled and non enrolled members of GBHS, non-members

All participants receive the long traditional Korean dance sleeves necessary for dancing, and then a video of his/her truly original dance.

The training will be physically more demanding for the feet and ideal as the training for the kicks which it also contains. However, it will also be manageable for children or entire families.

This is a unique seminar of the first kind in the Czech Republic, preceded by a short and very popular lesson at the spring camp in Poustky.

Applications via Events Schedule only at www.tkd.cz. Payments at a seminar.