16:00 training

18:15 dinner

19:45 training (after agreement without preschool children)

22:00 lights-out pupils (23:00 juniors)

One day will always be set-up to the day of relaxation day with a smaller training level.

In case of a gross disruption of discipline, anyone can be excluded from this action without compensation.

If your child can learn right and left, has a clock knowledge, has basic hygienic habits, and is capable of communicating with the teacher (eg, telling him that he is sick) - it is not a problem to manage camp alone. For small children, we recommend parenting, rather than tearful and weepy everyday phone calls. Parents have to support direct communication between the pupil and the teacher.

Please ask all members (at preschoolers also parents) to find time for at least two days for pre-exam and exams..

Students who do not reflect on the possibility of making exams by their non-participation at any camp for more than a year, they may be asked to terminate the membership.

You'd better read the whole flyer once again !!!
